The Julie Fund Gala 2008 Westin Boston Waterfront, November 1, 2008

The Julie Fund was established by the family and friends of Julie Paige McAvinn. Julie passed away in February 2004 at the young age of 40 after a 3 month battle with ovarian cancer. Money raised by The Julie Fund is used to fund research into women's cancers, to fund non-medical expenses for families of women's cancer sufferers, and to spread awareness of detection and treatments of women's cancers.

Advertising in the Program Book for this event will help The Julie Fund make a difference in the lives of women and their families who are faced with this terrible disease. Please take this opportunity to show your support by completing the form below.
